Direct Communication Obviously, the simplest and most common is where therapist or counselor negotiates the bartering agreement directly and in person with their client. This can take place before or during the first session or later on in therapy. The dialogue can take place in person or by other means of communication, such as phone or email.

Bartering in Psychotherapy and Counseling by Ofer Zur, Ph.D.

The Friends of the Lubbock Public Library (FOL), founded in 1967, is a non-profit organization that raises funds in support of the Lubbock Public Library System. FOL provides financial support and literary programs for community members of all ages. The major source of revenue to support FOL's contribution to the Library comes from the sale of items that have been donated by the community.
