We recall earlier in the Gospel of John at the wedding feast at Cana, as Mary instructed the servers and waiters to "do whatever he tells you." We too attempt to do whatever Jesus instructs us to do. We do not do it alone, but with His mom and now our mom. This motherhood of Mary confirms how close she is to all believers.

Daily Reflections - The Passionists

Mary knew the Lord, loved the Lord, and followed the Lord. Of all the women in scripture, Mary Magdalene stands out as having the closest relationship with Jesus and is cited more often than all other women in the New Testament. She is present in Jerusalem for Passover, the crucifixion, the burial and resurrection.
