Chizmar that Danse Macabre is truly one of Stephen King's most underrated books. Of all of King's canon, it's the one book I have read, and reread, with the most pleasure over the ensuing decades.

Danse Macabre | Stephen King Revisited

Danse Macabre is the finest and least known book that King has written. (Evidenced by the 12 lonely reviews in this section.) Do not look for gore; you will not find it. In Danse Macabre you will see the educated side of a popular fiction writer. He still has stories to tell, but does so with the organized discipline of a non-fiction author.
