"Hopscotch and Handbags" is a great memoir and exploration about female experience from primary school through to work and motherhood. This could have made it incredibly dull and worthy, but in fact this is an amazingly funny book (although it probably has most resonance for women born in the early to mid seventies.)

Spiked wrote about Hopscotch & Handbags "Handbags and Hopscotch will not disappoint Mangan's fans. It is souped-up, satin-sheet, five-star bilge - with lots and lots of lovely exaggeration, jokes and stylistic quirks." and "I can't say I've ever found the experience of being a girl 'so appalling' that I have to retreat to the woods to howl - but reading Mangan's book brings me ...
