(I surge the seam but a zigzag stitch is fine too) On the top I fold the tube downwards about 20cm to make it more firm. I fix the fabric with a small stitch onto the seam. I'm gathering the tube lightly at the side seam. This will make the tube dress a bit shorter and easier to keep pleats in position.

This stitch is so simple, you can crochet it without thinking, and I'm not even talking about counting stitches! It only consists of SC and chains, but still looks really elegant. The moss stitch can also be referred to as Granite or Linen stitch, it creates a nice thick fabric that is great for blankets, dishcloths or bags.
